

The Many Paths to a Unified Europe

Lecture Series

Summer Semester 2010 – Wednesdays 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. – Room I/203

14.04.2010

Simone Brandt, M.A. (International Office): Europe – What's that?: An Introduction

21.04.2010

Prof. Dr. Frank Kostrzewa (Department of German Language and Literature): Intercultural Communication

28.04.2010

Simone Brandt, M.A. (International Office): Integration and Europeanization – When Europe comes to the member states

05.05.2010

Simone Brandt, M.A. (International Office): Experiencing Europe: Working for the EU

19.05.2010

Prof. Dr. Sabine Liebig (Department of History): Jews in Europe – A people that never gave up

02.06.2010

Dr. Annette Deschner (Department of Bilingual Teaching): The Bilingual Ballroom: New Perspectives for Religious Education in Europe

09.06.2010

Prof. Dr. Peter Müller (Department of Protestant Theology): Islam in Europe

16.06.2010

Dr. Wolfgang Schmitz (Department of Chemistry): Chemical Elements and Europe – Francium, Germanium, Polonium and others

23.06.2010

Simone Brandt, M.A. (International Office): Media in Europe: Towards a European Public?

30.06.2010

Prof. Dr. Astrid Messerschmidt (Department of Lifelong Learning): Remembering History – Considering Difference – Reflecting Racism and Anti-Semitism in a Multicultural Europe

07.07.2010

Dr. Gertraud Kinne (Institute of Psychology): Europe and the United Arab Emirates – Potentials for educational cooperation

14.07.2010

Simone Brandt, M.A. (International Office): Europe – Fiction or Reality? A Conclusion